

Report The News: A Conversation Guide

Goals:

- Improve your ability to discuss current events
- Increase your "specialized" vocabulary
- Improve your ability to state your opinions

Description:

Speaker:

Think about something that has been in the news recently in your country. Then explain the news item to your conversation partner.

Listener:

Make sure that your partner answers the following questions:

- What is this news item about?
- Why is this important?
- Who is involved?
- What impact does this have on your country or the world?
- What is your personal opinion about the news item?

Once your partner has finished speaking, ask him/her any follow up questions that you may have.
